

Resources for Children

With Special Needs in Sacramento County

Handout #18

Healthy Children, Strong Families, Caring Communities

There are a variety of supportive services available to assist children with special needs and their families. Your child may have behavioral, developmental, health, mobility or other needs that require additional support so that he/she can be successful in activities at home, child care and school. The services listed can give your child the chance to learn new skills and develop friendships.
